

MY TEACHING KIT DESIGN CANVAS

A fun paper prototyping exercise for groups using Webmaker's Thimble tool. Don't be afraid to get messy!

give your kit a snappy elevator pitch!

CATCHY TITLE

FELLOW AUTHORS

TWEET-LENGTH DESCRIPTION

DESCRIPTION

What's it all about, who's it for, and why are we making it?

GOALS FOR LEARNING

List the Web Literacy Map competencies that you want participants to learn.

SUPPLEMENT:
WEB LITERACY CANVAS

AGENDA!

Write down titles of 3-5 group activities that make up this kit.
You'll get an Activity Canvas for each of these to fill out details!

SUPPLEMENT: ACTIVITY
CANVAS

PREPARATION!

What do future facilitators need to do this kit? Materials? Prep work?

LEARNING ASSESSMENT!

What criteria will we be using to assess learning? A badge? A checklist?

SUPPLEMENT:
BADGE
CANVAS

BY THE END OF THIS KIT...

Explain what you want participants to have MADE and LEARNED by the kit's end!

Content licensed CC-BY by Webmaker's @codekat. Feel free to remix!

MY ACTIVITY DESIGN CANVAS

Use this supplementary page to plan out each of the activities for your TEACHING KIT. Make sure each activity is MODULAR (can it stand alone?), HANDS-ON (making as learning!) and REMIXABLE, so others can use it, too!

*give your
activity a fun
elevator pitch!*

CATCHY TITLE

MATERIAL LIST

TWEET-LENGTH DESCRIPTION

STEP ONE

Think of this part as an introduction. How do you want facilitators to get started?

STEP TWO

Bonus: take some step by step photos to show how each step works live!

STEP THREE

STEP FOUR

STEP FIVE

STEP SIX

Let's finish your activity with a debrief discussion to prompt learner reflection!

Content licensed CC-BY by Webmaker's @codekat. Feel free to remix!